Marathi Language Promotion Fortnight: Self-Written Poetry Reading Program

Date: 15th January 2020

To celebrate and preserve the Marathi language, the period from 1st to 15th January was designated as "Marathi Speech Fortnight" by the government in 2015. In alignment with this, the Marathi department of the College of Arts, Science and Commerce hosted a poetry reading program featuring original student compositions.

Mrs. Lendhe, the Marathi subject teacher, began the program by emphasizing the significance of the Marathi language in our lives. Subsequently, students showcased their creative talents by reciting their own Marathi poems.

The poems covered a wide range of themes, including social issues, personal experiences, cultural pride, and the beauty of nature. The students delivered their poems with passion and confidence, captivating the audience.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks, leaving a lasting impression on the audience and highlighting the importance of nurturing the Marathi language and its literary traditions.

This rephrased version aims to be more concise and engaging while maintaining the original meaning.
